Please do not remove Klove from our radio in Oklahoma City to replace it with different broadcasting. Klove serves our community in a much needed way. It encourages those who are down and gives families something safe to listen to. Losing Klove would be devastating to those of us who depend on their support and encouragement every day. They really serve the public by providing prayer and a listening ear when people need it, and they provide quality entertainment. Thank you for your time.